

Press release: Face coverings in schools and colleges to remain in place

Face coverings in schools and colleges are to remain in place at start of summer term, following an ongoing review of the evidence and data