

Press release: Faith Minister calls on religious communities to bridge divides

People and faith groups urged to reach out to one another and build local networks to support their communities and to bridge divides and extend understanding.