

Press release: Farming robots and eco-buildings the future as research kick-starts new innovations

Three government backed projects are set to benefit from a share of £76 million to work on ground-breaking research through the modern Industrial Strategy.