

Press release: Fishing industry nets new funding to train the next generation

The projects range from practical courses in seafood preparation or manning fishing boats through to degree level qualifications.