

Press release: Fishing without a licence costs Leicestershire man over £560 more than cost of licence

A 21-year-old man has been successfully prosecuted by the Environment Agency after being found guilty of fishing without a licence in July 2018.