

Press release: Flood warnings remain in place as heavy rainfall is expected over the weekend

The Environment Agency reminds communities to check their flood risk and remain prepared to take action if needed.