

Press release: Food scraps could be turned into environmentally friendly plastic packaging

UK to lead the world in development of sustainable packaging thanks to new government funding.