

Press release: Funding to help developing countries phase out use of damaging climate gases announced

Environment Secretary announces developing countries will receive £4 million to phase out the use of chemicals found in refrigeration and cold supply chains