

Press release: Girls' education should be a development priority for the Commonwealth

New report finds that helping girls stay in school requires leadership and action by all sectors of society.