

Press release: Government consults on ending live animal exports for slaughter

Environment Secretary unveils plans to end excessively long journeys for animals exported for slaughter and fattening.