

Press release: Government data shows mass events can take place safely but fans urged to remain cautious in crowds and get vaccinated

Data across all Event Research Programme (ERP) phases show cases observed in and around events were in line with, or below, community prevalence