

Press release: Government ensures housing development helps foot the bill for school places

New guidance sets out how councils can seek funding from housing development in their area and use it to create school places