

Press release: Government ensures long-term certainty for food labour needs

The government has set out plans to make the UK food supply chain most cutting-edge in the world