

Press release: Government invests £142 million in building communities to deliver the homes the country needs

The money will be spent on widening bridges, building roads and connecting utilities so up to 8,500 properties can be built.