

Press release: Government pledges to improve the way Council Tax debt is recovered

Vulnerable people who fall behind with Council Tax payments will have greater protection from aggressive debt enforcement under new plans to improve the way councils collect arrears.