

Press release: Government proposes further support for flood resilience measures

Plans include insurance payments for flood-hit properties to build back better and discounted premiums for flood resilient homes