

Press release: Government supports charities to go digital

Government announces £1 million funding to support programmes helping charities to improve their digital skills