

Press release: Government takes next step in improving standards of UK audit market with new independent review into audit standards

Donald Brydon, outgoing Chair of the London Stock Exchange Group, appointed to lead new independent review of the quality and effectiveness of the UK audit market.