

Press release: Government to fund and speed up vital cladding replacement

Around £200 million will be made available to remove and replace unsafe cladding from more than 166 privately owned high-rise buildings.