

Press release: Government unveils plans to restore 300,000 hectares of habitat across England

The new schemes will support nature recovery and climate action by rewarding farmers in their local area, alongside sustainable and profitable food production.