

Press release: Helping hand to set up new businesses

A new government service allowing start-ups to jointly register their company and register for tax has been used 200,000 times.