

Press release: Highways England awards design contract to shape North West roads

A multi-million pound contract which will help shape the future of roads across the North West has been awarded by Highways England.