

Press release: Highways England calls on motorists to tow safely this summer

Highways England is urging anyone towing to ensure they have the correct licence and insurance, and their vehicle and load are connected correctly and securely.