

Press release: Highways England helping motorists over Easter period

Highways England is preparing to lift and complete miles of roadworks to help people travelling over Easter and is urging motorists to check their vehicles.