

Press release: Highways England pours £4 million into canal restoration scheme

A mile-long stretch of canal that disappeared more than half a century ago is a step closer to being restored, thanks to £4 million of funding from Highways England.