

Press release: Housing Minister tightens up rules on electrical safety to better protect renters

New measures designed to ensure mandatory electrical inspections are carried out by competent and qualified inspectors.