

Press release: Inaugural regional roundtable held to promote court reporting

West Country media and court officials today attended the first in a series of roundtable meetings designed to promote the reporting of courts and tribunals.