

Press release: Increased government funding to boost farming productivity

More than £168m to drive innovation, improve productivity and support animal health and welfare through greener equipment, robotics and automation.