

Press release: Investment to boost community tree cover across parts of England

£2 million has been awarded to projects investigating the best ways to boost tree numbers outside woodlands