

Press release: James Brokenshire confirms funding package for local authorities in 2019 to 2020

Councils in England are to benefit from increased funding for core services including additional support for the most vulnerable in society.