

Press release: Keeping primates as pets banned

It will no longer be possible to keep primates as household pets in environments that fail to provide for their needs