

Press release: Landmark legislation to crack down on bosses for polluting water

Introduction of major new legislation for the water sector will deliver the most significant increase in enforcement powers in a decade