

Press release: Legal services and LawTech bolstered with £2 million of government funding

Just over £2 million has been committed by the government to help embrace the opportunities of LawTech, drive innovation and help the UK legal sector grow.