

Press release: Leicestershire man nets £600 fine for fishing without a licence

A 26-year-old man has been successfully prosecuted by the Environment Agency after being found guilty of fishing without a licence in August 2018.