

Press release: Liam Fox submits services schedule to WTO

The UK has taken a major step towards an independent seat at the World Trade Organization after submitting its services schedule.