

Press release: Major charging point contract to benefit electric vehicle users

Highways England has awarded a multi-million-pound contract to help people take longer journeys in electric vehicles.