

Press release: Making the best use of small contractors

The installation of new field drainage at a Coal Authority asset has been successfully completed thanks to a small local contractor.