

Press release: Members of the public “routinely put in danger” by Bristol park and ride business

Region's Traffic Commissioner says operation needed to be stopped before someone is killed.