

Press release: Merger of credit score firms could reduce competition in sector

The CMA is concerned that Experian's takeover of start-up rival ClearScore could stifle product development and impact customers.