

Press release: Minister warns construction industry they must be ready for new rules on paying suppliers on time

Leaders from the construction industry have been reminded that tough new rules on paying their suppliers on time are due to come into force in September.