

Press release: Ministers act to increase "Changing Places" toilets for severely disabled people

New shopping centres, stadiums and theme parks are among buildings that could be required to provide Changing Places toilets for severely disabled people.