

Press release: More action needed to protect the world's ocean, says Environment Secretary on World Wildlife Day

The Environment Secretary calls for countries to join together to halt and reverse the loss of nature and protect at least 30% of the world's ocean by 2030.