

Press release: More than 22,000 properties protected during recent flooding

The Environment Agency warns public to continue taking care following the recent flooding