

Press release: New contract extends fisheries partnership with the Angling Trust

The Angling Trust has been awarded a new contract to undertake essential angling services including tackling illegal angling and encouraging more people to go fishing across the country.