

Press release: New counter-terrorism information sharing platform announced

A new multi-million pound project to share information with the private sector has been announced by the Security Minister.