

Press release: New investment in European Bioinformatics Institute to tackle life threatening diseases

European Bioinformatics Institute in Cambridge receives £45 million government investment to increase centre's computing, storage and building capacity.