

Press release: New investment in peat in fight against climate change

On 29 June 2023, the government announced new investment and actions to improve lowland peat and reduce carbon emissions.