

Press release: New legislation to protect against Oak Processionary Moth impacts

New legislation comes into force to allow movement of large oak trees within operational zones and boundaries in place to help manage Oak Processionary Moth.