

Press release: New prevention zone to stop spread of avian influenza

New localised housing measures introduced to protect poultry and captive birds following confirmed and suspected cases of avian influenza in North Yorkshire