Press release: New register to help all children get the education they deserve

The Government has set out plans for a register of children not in school, enabling councils to act effectively if they have concerns for a child's education.